Conferencing has become integrated into the fabric of how businesses communicate. It brings partners, teams and customers closer. It enables you to close deals faster and compete on a level playing field. It lets you get the word out quickly. And it saves your company money.

Lighthouse Conferencing provides powerful conferencing services to make your meetings more productive. Our Reservationless Conferencing provides a simple, clear way to connect.

Always On. Always Available.

Assembling the team has never been so easy. Reservationless Conferencing comes with a dedicated dial-in number and passcode for easy access and unlimited meetings. Give out the number once and use the same number every time—it's always at your service. Lighthouse Reservationless Conferencing streamlines the process, making your meetings highly effective and affordable.

Put Your Meetings in the Spotlight

Reservationless Conferencing includes intuitive tools to help you easily manage your participants, secure your meeting and record your conference – all from your telephone keypad or the web. Make your remote meetings more productive by adding visual components. Show presentations with your audio call to engage your audience. Discuss and mark up a document to speed up the review process. Lighthouse Web Conferencing is a great way to spotlight and amplify your messages and meeting goals.

Bridge Your World

Stockholm is now a suburb of Denver. Connect and collaborate easily with people down the street or around the world. Your international calls demand the highest quality connections. Lighthouse Global Reservationless Conferencing provides automated service with access points around the globe for a clear, consistent experience for all participants – without audio lags or overlap. Our service is a simple, affordable way to make conferencing an extremely effective global business tool. The world is now as small as you need it to be.
